Docket A: Virginia Bill 1247

A Bill to Grant the Ability to Vote to Ex-Felons in Order to Combat Recidivism Rates, Increase Voter Turnout, and Include Diverse Viewpoints in Government Policies.

Be it enacted,

SECTION 1. This bill would align the state of Virginia with the majority of the country by restoring the right to felons after they have served their time in prison and finished any parole or probation. Additionally, this bill would change the state policy of Governor approval being the exclusive means of ex-felon voting restoration. Including a group separated from general society for years gives them an opportunity to be involved in their present communities, transitioning them back into society.

SECTION 2. Ex-felon - one who has been convicted of a felony in the past, but has completed their sentence and is cleared for release psychologically as well physically

SECTION 3. The government agency(ies) that will oversee enforcement are:

The governor of Virginia

United States Bureau of Justice Assistance

Government-appointed psychologists assigned to clear the felon for mental stability

SECTION 4. This legislation will take effect on March 16, 2024. All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

A Bill to Propose the Removal of Pennies from Circulation

Be it enacted,

Be It Enacted By The Langley HS Model Congress

Article I: The US Federal Mint shall cease to produce pennies for the purposes of circulation.

Article II: After the passage of this bill, the government shall announce in two year's notice that the penny as currency shall be deemed as illegitimate for the purposes of transaction and thus not considered legal tender.

Article III: The public will be encouraged to exchange the possession of their pennies for checks or cash to be delivered to them via Federal mail services. Those who undergo this exchange will have their money rounded up to the nickel amount if they desire physical currency, and those who desire to store it through technological means via their banking services will simply receive the exact amount. This exchange may only occur once per person and will be tracked per social security number.

Article IV: Federal enforcement shall extract pennies from coin-collecting machines and the company that owns such machines along with the franchise owner shall be properly compensated by refunding the holder rounded up to the nickel amount

Article V: Once implemented the process for extracting the penny out of the economy shall occur swiftly and not hinder the economic processes of local and international markets

Article VI: Online transactions will not be affected even if prices are listed according to the penny amount, however if such online currency is converted into physical currency, both the buyer and the seller must collude on whether to round up or down to the nickel amount.
