The Last of the Bugs Act

Be it enacted,

Line01: Article 1: The United States Environmental Protection Agency, in coordination with Line02: The United States Department of Agriculture, shall be tasked with the submission of Line03: comprehensive biannual reports regarding (i) the numerical status of national insect
Line04: populations and (ii) the extent of current conservation efforts in relation to protected
Line05: insects and the numerical effectiveness thereof. These reports shall be submitted Line06: to Congress on a biannual basis and made available for national public viewing.

Line07: Article 2: A. "Biannual reports" shall refer to individual reports that are to be Line08: conducted and presented twice every fiscal year in the form of two six month terms.
Line09: B. "Available for national public viewing" shall refer any piece of media that, Line10: through its publication, is accessible to at least 75% of current US citizens.

Line11: Article 3: The House Committee on Agriculture and The Senate Committee on Line12: Environment and Public Works shall be given direct oversight over the provisions of Line13: this bill. In the case of failed compliance, a fine of no more than ten thousand dollars
Line14: shall be set forth per calendar day up to the collective discretion of both the House
Line15: and the Senate committees.

Line16: Article 4: The provisions of this bill shall take effect on April 24, 2027

Line17: Article 5: All laws in conflict with this legislation are hereby declared null and void.

Docket A: Economic Bill 0211

A Bill to Provide United States Citizens With A Liveable Baseline Income

Be it enacted,

Line 01: SECTION 1. The United States government should see to it that each Line 02: citizen of the nation are awarded a non-taxed monthly payout of Line 03: $1,000 with an additional $200 awarded per child or human Line 04: dependent. This action will be taken on by the Department of Line 05: Health and Human Services and Social Security Administration.

Line 06: SECTION 2. A budget of about $3.7 trillion will be provided to the Line 07: departments listed above to be distributed among the American Line 08: people. This budget is subject to increase with the population
Line 09: of citizens in order to continue allowing each independent U.S.
Line 10: citizen to be provided with their proper baseline Income.

Line 11: SECTION 3. Those already on other forms of Government benefits
Line 12: should be allowed the choice of retaining their current benefits
Line 13: or opting into the Universal Baseline Income program in order Line 14: to subtract roughly $1.2 trillion from the revenue necessary for Line 15: this program. All United States citizens not currently enrolled in Line 16: a form of welfare program will automatically be provided with Line 17: this Universal Basic Income.

Line 18: SECTION 4. In order to aid in providing the necessary budget for this Line 19: action, a VAT (Value Added Tax) of about 5% will be Line 20: implemented on most goods and services across the United Line 21: States. The profits of this VAT will be funneled from the Line 22: government body to the baseline income.

Line 23: SECTION 5. This bill will be put in effect as soon as January 1, 2027.
Line 24: All laws in conflict will also be ruled null by the introduction of Line 25: this bill.

A Bill to Ensure the Democratic Transition of Haiti

Be it enacted,

Line 01: ARTICLE I. On March 1st, 2026, $2.5 billion dollars will be allocated towards Line 02: the guarantee of free and fair elections in the Republic of Haiti.

Line 03: ARTICLE II. The Department of Defense will seize control of the city of Line 04: Port-au-Prince and free the remaining gang controlled territories, such as the Line 05: Artibonite, Centre or Ouest Departments, among others. Fils-Aimé's interim Line 06: government shall be put in charge of domestic aid and election hosting, using Line 07: the resources of the United States and under its supervision, during the Line 08: duration of this operation.

Line 09: ARTICLE III. These actions will occur only when paramilitary action is Line 10: confirmed to be ineffective or insufficient. In the event of failure, intelligence Line 11: assets shall be retained to confirm the fairness and validity of elections, and to Line 12: ensure the existing widespread pro-American culture and attitude of the Haitian Line 13: people remain present in the nation.

Line 14: ARTICLE IV. The provisions of this bill shall take effect immediately following Line 15: a vote in favor of passing the bill.

Line 16: ARTICLE V. Any and all legislation in conflict with this legislature is thus Line 17: declared null and void.

Docket A: Virginia Bill 2040

A Bill to Incrementally Increase Virginia Hourly Minimum Wage in Accordance with the CPI-U

Be it enacted,

Line 01: SECTION II. The Commonwealth of Virginia shall increase the hourly
Line 02: minimum wage incrementally as follows: $13.75 per hour effective
Line 03: January 1, 2027, and $15.00 per hour effective January 1, 2028.
Line 04: Starting January 1, 2029, the wage shall be adjusted in accordance Line 05: with the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U).

Line 06: SECTION 2. The 'hourly minimum wage' refers to the legal baseline Line 07: pay for all non-exempt employees ($12.77 as of now). CPI-U is a primary
Line 08: monthly measure of inflation in the U.S., tracking the average price Line 09: change for a basket of goods and services purchased by 93% of the Line 10: total population.

Line 11: Section III. The following state organizations will oversee the bill jointly:
Line 12 A. The Virginia Department of Labor and Industry will publish the Line 13: inflation-adjusted rate for the following year no later than October 1st of Line 14: each year.
Line 15: B. The Virginia Department of Taxation will allocate funds for this wage Line 16: adjustment.
Line 17: C. The Virginia Department of Accounts will oversee the distribution of Line 18: funds to state agencies to cover increases in payroll.
Line 19: D. Instead of raising taxes on the normal individual or local businesses,
Line 20: funding will come from a 0.5% fee added to the Virginia Corporate Income Line 21: Tax. This fee only applies to massive corporations (like Amazon, Walmart, Line 22: or Northrop Grumman) with >$100 million in gross revenue.

Line 23: SECTION IV. The provisions of this bill shall take effect January 1, 2027.

Leg_Title: A Bill to Implement a Virginia Food for Virginia Kids (VFVK) Student Consulting Internship in the Summer of 2027-2028

Line 00: Be it enacted

Line 01:

Line 02: Article I: The VDOE shall implement an internship program through the Virginia

Line 03: Food for Virginia Kids (VFVK) Program in the summer of 2027-2028. The program

Line 04: will be for rising 11th graders through high school graduates.

Line 05:

Line 06: Article II: The purpose of this program is to have current and recently graduated

Line 07: students give recommendations on what foods to include in the Virginia Food for

Line 08: Virginia Kids program, which aims to increase capacity for VA counties to produce

Line 09: and provide made-from-scratch, locally-sourced meals during the school day.

Line 10:

Line 11: Article III: The students will complete an application by January 31, 2027, and the Line 12: program will be limited to students from Title 1 schools, who may otherwise be

Line 13: unable to participate in programs that require application fees. There will be no

Line 14: application fee and the students will receive a small stipend, and will gain valuable

Ensuring And Enforcing Paid Maternity/Paternity/Spousal Leave

Be it enacted,

Line 01: SECTION 1. Paid maternity leave, lasting a minimum of 12 weeks, Line 02: will be mandated across all companies. A minimum of 40% of the Line 03: eligible employees' salary will be paid to them for the entire duration of Line 04: that period. Paid paternity / spousal leave, lasting a minimum of 6 Line 05: weeks, will also be mandated across all companies. A minimum of 60% of Line 06: the eligible employees' salaries will be paid to them for the entire duration
Line 08: of that period.

Line 09: SECTION II.

Line 10: A. Employees who work part time shall be deemed eligible, on the condition Line 11: that they work 30 hours per week or more on a yearly basis. Leniency to this Line 12: section includes up to 4 weeks in which the 30 hour requirement was not Line 13: met per year. Employees who work part time will be paid the percentage of Line 14: money based on the average number of hours they worked per week,
Line 15: calculated by the number of weeks they worked throughout that year.
Line 16: Employees must be employed for a year or more in order to claim either Line 17: spouse / maternity leave. Full-time employees do not have to meet the Line 18: 30-hour requirement.

Line 19: B. . Eligibility for maternity leave shall be defined as the individual giving Line 20: birth, whose legal sex is female. Eligibility for paternity / spousal leave Line 21: shall be defined as an individual who is legally married to an individual Line 22: who qualifies and is partaking in paid maternity leave.
Line 23: Maternity / spousal leave must start between 36 weeks and 39 weeks
Line 24: into the pregnancy, as determined by a qualified medical professional.
Line 25: A qualified medical professional will be a term defined as an individual
Line 26: whose primary profession is either a doctor, physician, or obstetrician.

Line 27: C. Any company who fires, dismisses, demotes, or lays off an employee Line 28: within 3 months of scheduled maternity/spousal leave will be Line 29: investigated and fined the sum of the employee's salary that would have Line 30: been paid to the individual on maternity/spousal leave if found to have Line 31: been performing that action with the primary justification being the Line 32: upcoming leave.

Line 33: Section 3. The Federal Bureau of Investigation will enforce and
